Abstract

The JRD Lamp Shop is a lamp manufacturer and distributor, the line of product such as table lamp, floor lamp, chandelier and also lamp equipments. Currently, the shop record product data, inventory data and other data in a paper. That makes the proceed mistake, data loss and redundancy. The shop cannot know the up-to-date and accurate information. Therefore, I have an idea to develop the Online Inventory Management System to help the shop's inventory processes. This system is a web application developed in PHP, JavaScript and HTML language. And record the data in a relational database that manage by using MySQL to be DBMS.
